9-th. T. J. TODD, City Marshal.

FRANKFORT, KY., DECEMBER 20, 1879.

FRANKFORT, KY., DECEMBER 20, 1879.

A large number of the K. M. I. cadets left for their homes yesterday to spend the holidays.

Mr. Darsie preaches to-morrow night to young people on the "Vice of Profanity."
All are invited.

Mr. J. M. Banta has something to say to his friends in our column of Local Notices.
Don't fail to read it.

Hogs must vacate the city. The City
Marshal is going to enforce ordinance No.
40—the "Hog Law."

The fine display of Ja-sa-por-i ware in Mr. O. S. Walcutt's show-window attracts much attention and is greatly admired.

Persons who are interested in the raffle of the magnificent doll in Mr. L. Weitzel's show-window are requested to pay up and be present at Mr. Weitzel's confectionery, at 7 o'clock, next Monday evening.

The supper at the court-house Wednesday night was an elegant affair, and was liberally patronized. It was given by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church for the benefit of the church, and realized $142 for them.

Seven men are employed regularly at the Capital City Machine Shops, Ferguson, Meek & Melcher, proprietors. If anybody thinks this new enterprise is not a success, they will be speedily undeceived by a visit to the shops.

Royal Templars, don't forget that at the meeting next Thursday evening an election of officers for the ensuing six months will take place, at which time it is important that every member of the Order, male and female, be present.

Mr. O. M. Reynolds, of Talladega Ala., and Miss Lizzie T. Smith, daughter of the late Col. Randolph Smith, were married in this city, at the residence of the bride's grandfather, Gen. A. W. Dudley, on Wednesday, the 17th inst., by Elder Philip S. Fall, Elder George Darsie assisting. The newly wedded couple left on the 2:40 p. m. train for their future home in Alabama. No cards. Those present were mainly relatives. Many nuptial offerings of value were presented by the bride's friends.

A dispatch was received by Governor
Blackburn Thursday night from Mr. J. E.
Abrams, of Gratz, Owen county, stating that Messrs. Heilman, Davis, and Roberts, respectable citizens of Owen county, were accidentally drowned in Kentucky river Wednesday night, near Gratz, and asking him to send a cannon and an artilleryman down at once for the purpose of trying to raise the bodies by firing the cannon into the river. The Governor referred the matter to Gen. J. P. Nuckols, who sent Mr.
Coly Owen down with a cannon on the freight train yesterday afternoon.

THE TIME HAS COME!
WHEN EVERYBODY IS PREPARING FOR THE

WEEKLY ROUNABOUT.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 20, 1879.

$1 The ROUNABOUT from now till January 1st, 1880. $1

Mr. Sol. Harris has a fine doll show in his show-window.

Call at Marshall & Meagher's to get your nice Christmas presents.

The Grand Jury returned forty two indictments at the term of the Criminal Court just closed in this county.

All are cordially invited to attend the meeting of the Christian Temperance Union at the court-house this evening at 7 o'clock.

The young ladies of the Presbyterian Sunday-school will give a doll fair Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. E. L. Sammel.

We understand from the mountain men that coal was sold to dealers in this city at 13 and 14 cents. Over 20,000 bushels have arrived here this week.

We will take pleasure in publishing the names of persons who are going to "receive" on New Year's Day, if they will notify us of the fact by the middle of next week.

If you would make your sons or your brothers or your fathers happy, go to Crutcher & Starks' and buy them a handsome suit of clothes for a Christmas present.

About thirty barges of coal left Beattyville, on the recent rise in the river, for Frankfort and intermediate points. We are told that a quantity of it was sold above here at fifteen cents per bushel.

The saw-mill men are happy; likewise their employes. The rise in the river brought down a quantity of saw-logs and some coal. Now for a reduction in the price of wood and coal.

A colored woman in South Frankfort, last week, gave her child carbolic acid by mistake, supposing it was paragoric. The child's mouth and chin were badly cauterized wherever the acid touched.

Mr. O. S. Walcutt offers a good farm, with all necessary new improvements on it, for sale in this issue. It is situated on the Leestown pike, only a short distance from the city. Read his advertisement.

There are six hundred and seventy eight (678) licensed rum shops in Louisville, paying into the city treasury $66,120. Number of drunkards made by them every year is not recorded in the city books.

With a view of quitting business, Mr. O. S. Walcutt offers his entire stock of boots, shoes, hats, caps, chromos, fancy notions, &c., at cost for cash for the next forty days. Read his advertisement in this paper and see bills.

Mr. Albert Taylor, elder brother of Messrs. Robt. B. and C. E. Taylor, and a former resident of this city, died at Lexington last Tuesday. The remains were brought to this city Wednesday afternoon and interred in the family lot in our cemetery.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Peter Sower, which appears in this issue. He has a nice restaurant in connection with his confectionery, where meals can be had at all hours. His stock of fine cakes, candies, cigars, tobacco, toys, &c., is complete. Read his advertisement.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the Young Ladies' Cooking Club, at Meriwether Hotel, next Tuesday evening, 23d inst. This will be the first entertainment given under the auspices of the Y. L. C. C., and we are assured it will be a grand affair. About seventy-five invitations have been issued. Young gentlemen who are invited are expected to attend alone, and accompany some member of the Y. L. C. C. home.

ROUNDABOUT...Supplement.

The small boy shooteth his fire-crackers and is happy.

An old sow, supposed to have hydrophobia, made things lively on the streets last Sunday night. She attacked two gentlemen on the bridge and they were compelled to climb on the division between the side-walk and wagon-way to get out of reach. Another gent. was chased some distance by her, and she finally ran Officer Conway into the office of Williams' stable, compelling him to shoot her before he could get out.

Mr. S. Black has sold to Mr. C. T. Freeman, of Woodford county, three of his thorough-bred Short Horn bull calves for the Freeman Bros.' ranch in Western Texas. If a few more of our farmers would raise a good class of Short Horns it would add very much to the revenue of the county and State, and if the people generally would take more interest in the Kentucky Industrial Association there would be more improvement in the stock and other articles of trade. We hope they will see it in that light, and make our fair a grand success in the future.

Last Saturday afternoon a negro man, Charley May, in the employ of Mr. L. Herrmann, stole a pocket-book containing forty dollars and a gold locket, from Mrs. Herrmann's bureau drawer, and left on the 2:40 p. m. train for Louisville. The pocket-book and contents were missed Sunday morning and Charley was at once suspected of having stolen them. The police were informed of the matter, and at 6 o'clock Sunday evening a dispatch was sent to a detective at Louisville, giving him a history of the case, a description of the thief, and instructions to arrest the said Charles if he could be found in the Falls City. At 7 o'clock Monday morning detective Carter Teller arrested him, and on Tuesday he was turned over to the authorities in this city. He was tried Wednesday for grand larceny, and in default of bail, was sent to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury next spring. The locket and pocket-book were recovered, but the $40 was non est inventus.

At a meeting of the Frankfort Christian Temperance Union last Saturday night, the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved. That the heart-felt thanks of the Frankfort Christian Temperance Union are due, and are hereby tendered to Bro. Sidney French for the zeal and efficiency he has shown in the Temperance work wherever he has been since he identified himself with the cause, and we commend him to the good people wherever he may be, as a man of honest purposes, zealous in the cause of Temperance, and worthy of their highest confidence and esteem.

Antioch.

Little Willie Parrent is very much indisposed.

Don't forget the Murphy meeting tomorrow night.

William Snow, who has been quite ill, is out again.

Regular services at Antioch Church tomorrow, at 11 o'clock, a. m., Elder Harvey Baker officiating.

Christmas tree at Antioch school-house next Wednesday, December 24th, at 2 o'clock, p. m. Come one, come all!

The teachers of this county certainly do appreciate the kindness of Commissioner Ford and Prof. Browder for the indefatigable energy they are putting forth each Saturday to advance the grade or scholarship among said teachers.

Rev. Brack Stivers, of the Christian Church, who has been laboring during the present year in Carter county, is visiting friends in this vicinity, preparatory to leaving for Pennsylvania, where he is to preach during the coming year.

Bridgeport.

Everybody is complaining of colds.

Stock hogs are in good demand here.

Rumor says we are to have several weddings soon.

Mrs. Hetzlegesser is quite ill at Dr. U. V. Williams'.

Eggs are scarce but there are a few turkeys and chickens left.

Mr. Raleigh Armstrong and wife have returned from a visit to friends in Anderson county.

Mr. Thomas Ellison died on the 15th inst., and was buried near his residence the next day.

Mr. Hiter Crockett, who has been very ill with typhoid pneumonia, is now improving slowly.

Mrs. J. W. Jackson and daughter, Miss Cordie, have returned from a short visit to relatives in Frankfort.

The many friends of Mr. Walter Franklin were pleased to see in the ROUNDABOUT of last week his announcement as a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk.

The Murphys had no meetings here for some time. Can't you send out our young friend and orator, Hon. Thos. B Ford, to arouse us from our lethargy?

Buo.

K. M. I.

The Kentucky Military Institute, last Saturday night, was a scene of great brilliancy and beauty. For hospitality and kindness Col. Allen, the host, was unsurpassed. The immediate cause of the revelry was "The Dramatics," which concluded with a dance, given by the gallant cadets. These, with the glittering brass-buttons and handsome youths, combined to form an attraction irresistible to quite a number of our pleasure-loving young ladies. A collation, elegant and refreshing, was served to the assembled guests, and, as in times of yore, when "Chivalry" was the first law with the stronger sex, each maiden had a chosen knight, who stood behind her chair, eager to do her bidding.

The Dramatics commenced at half past seven. The hall was crowded to witness the performance. The drama, entitled "Down by the Sea" was most unexceptionably performed. The talent displayed by the young gentlemen was very fine indeed. One and all entered with great spirit into the play, and the rendition of it was faultless.

After the play was concluded, the "Devotees at the shrine of Harpsichord" gathered into the music hall, and Frankfort's King of Music, Prof. Wayland Graham, made the air resonant with his melodies, and each heart beat responsive to the strains of music wafted forth. Rarely has it been our delight to witness such a scene. Myriads, as it were, of gentlemen, wearing the "blue and the grey" filled the hall, girls with flushed cheeks and shining eyes, gazed up enraptured (with the music, I guess).

But, alas, each joy must end, and as the hour of departure drew near, close handshakes and many sighs were exchanged, and the tired but happy party of young ladies left for their homes.

Thanks, many thanks, oh, gallant soldier boys, for one night of exquisite pleasure. Long will the memory of the happy hours spent with you remain with us, and with the hope that we will meet again, with such joy, I say not farewell, but au revoir.

"E PLURIBUS UNUM."

From what we can learn, we think there will be what is generally termed a "swell wedding" on the South Side before many months shall have passed by—the high contracting parties being a South Frankfort belle and a handsome young gentleman of a neighboring city.

The ROUNDABOUT and the Louisville Weekly Courier-Journal are offered one year for the small sum of $2.25. The price of the Courier-Journal alone is $2.00. Send in your names with the cash and get two papers for a year that will give you all the home and foreign news, market reports, &c.

We learn through the Frankfort and Lawrenceburg telephone that little Charley Hanks, aged about ten years, was playing around the scalding tub at a hog-killing near Lawrenceburg, when he fell into the tub and was scalded to death. He is a son of the late Joseph Hanks, who was killed a year or two ago by Joe Frazier.

The charter of Court Fleetwood, No. 26, Independent Order of Foresters, has been re-opened, and members will be received into this Court at charter-member rates, $3.50, until the first of June, 1880. The life insurance in this Order is $1,000, $2,000, and $3,000, as the member may elect. Call on Geo. A. Lewis, Secretary, for further information.

What a pleasure it is to go into a store and look around and be waited upon by one who makes you feel that it is really no trouble to show goods and give prices, even though you "don't want to buy anything." Such a person is Mr. Chas. T. Keller, the accommodating young gentleman who handles the jewelry at Selbert's store—always polite and accommodating. Drop in to see him as you pass that way.

The following are the officers of Court Fleetwood, No. 26, I. O. F., elected at the meeting Wednesday night, to serve the ensuing six months:

W. Johnston Todd, C. R.
T. J. Hutchison, V. C. R.
Geo. A. Lewis, R. Sec.
Claude Buckley, F. Sec.
L. Herrmann, Treas.
Gustav. Schaefer, S. W.
B. B. Jeffers, J. W.
Geo. Finley, S. B.
Harry Buckley, J. B.

Last Saturday night George Hazlewood, who keeps a colored boarding-house in "Craw," was arrested on the charge of attempting to poison one of his boarders, an ex-convict, named Gardner. It seems that Hazlewood was jealous of Gardner's attentions to his wife, and procuring some arsenic, put it in the coffee intended for him. Another boarder caught him in the act and told Gardner not to touch it. A warrant was obtained for the arrest of Hazlewood and he was placed in jail. Sunday morning Hazlewood told the jailer that Gardner was one of the parties who robbed Mr. Jas. Rogers' grocery, and he was also arrested. The parties had an examining trial before Judge Sneed and Esquire Gwin Tuesday evening and the evidence not being strong enough to hold Gardner, he was discharged, and warned by Judge Sneed to leave town within forty-eight hours. Hazlewood's case was continued until this afternoon.

Persons who own hogs and keep them within the city limits are requested to read city ordinance, No. 40, in another column of this paper. This ordinance has recently been passed, and the City Marshal intends to enforce it.

At a meeting of Capital Lodge, No. 269, I. O. G. T., held Thursday evening, December 18, 1878, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

We, the officers and members of Capital Lodge, No. 269, having heard with sorrow the affliction lately placed upon our dear Brother Sanford Goin, in the loss of his little daughter, Rosa May; therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby tender to our said brother and his family our heartfelt sympathies in their sad bereavement.

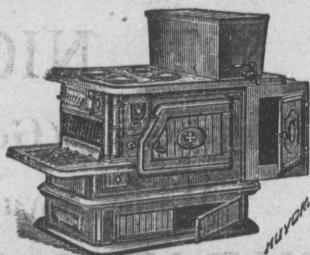

Resolved, That our sorrow is great, that, by Divine Providence, so true and earnest a temperance advocate as was little Rosa has been taken from us.

Resolved, That our Secretary record these resolutions on the minute-book of this Lodge and furnish a copy to the bereaved family; and

Resolved, That each of the city papers be furnished with a copy for publication.
